He Saw It All

chorus

Orig in F

D	G	•	D
I was working in town one afternoo	n, attending sor	ne business a	affairs
D				\mathbf{A}
I heard a commotion, a couple stree	ets over, and wo	ondered what	's happening	there
G	,	Bm		G
A young man was running, from in	that direction, a	nd stopped i	ust to catch	his breath
D	G	A		D
l asked him to please tell me what v	was the hurry. h	e smiled up a	t me and he	said
P	, , ,
G		D
"I was (you'll be) trying to catch the crippled man, did he run past this way?"
D	G	A		'
He was rushing home to tell eve	rvone, what Jes	us did todav
G I)	-	Bm		G
And the mute man was telling, myself and the deaf girl, he's leaving to answer God's call
D	G	D	_	Bm	•
It's hard to believe, but if you do	n't trust me. asl	the blind ma
D A D	,		,
Ask the blind man, he saw it all
7 tok tilo billia man, no oav it an
D		G		D
My friend if the troubles and burder	ns vou carry ar	_	Iragging you	down
D	is you ourry, are	, neavy and e	nagging you	Δ
And you've tried everything you ca	n nossihly think	of hut there	's no relief te	n he found
G D	i possibly tillin	Bm	3 IIO Teller to	G
_	ho futuro, of the		ho doaf and (•
That very same Jesus that altered the future, of the blind man. the deaf and the lame
le still reaching out in your hour of	trouble one to	ich and vour	ע never the sa	ma	